

Cambridge

May 29, 1889

My dear Dr. Chadwick,

I am so tired
with my winter's work
that I am only an absent this time) that I have decided not to do any speaking after June 1 except. June 2)

when I must mend
at the F. D. K. at Cambridge. I hate
not to oblige you,
but must say no.
(Besides, I spoke at that dinner 2 years ago, or perhaps 3)

Yours cordially
T. W. Higginson
